The Honorary Doctor of Fine Arts Degree recognizes individuals whose achievements are extraordinary and have lasting distinction. It is awarded to individuals who may or may not have an existing association with the University, on the basis of excellence in scholarship, creativity, leadership, humanitarian service, and public service. Members of the Board of Governors or employees of the University of North Carolina or any of its constituent institutions are not eligible. Any elected official or state employees concerned with the function and control of the UNC School of the Arts becomes eligible after termination of such status.

Any faculty, staff, student, alumnus, or trustee of UNCSA may nominate a potential candidate. Award nominations are made to the Office of the Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost and must be received by October 1 for consideration for the following spring.

Each nomination must include the following documentation:

1. This Honorary Degree Nomination Form with signature of nominator.
2. Nomination Statement (2-3 pages), explaining why the nominee should be considered for an honorary degree from UNCSA. Questions addressed should include:
 - What is the specific content of the nominee's contribution?
 - What is original about that contribution?
 - Of all possible contributions to the field of endeavor, why is this nominee of exceptional merit?
 - Why are the contributions of the nominee especially appropriate to UNCSA?
3. Other supporting materials as deemed necessary by the nominator.

Incomplete nominations cannot be reviewed by the committee and will be returned.

⇒ Care should be taken so that candidates are not aware of their nomination.

Email completed nomination packet to ProvostForms@uncarts.onmicrosoft.com or send hard copy originals to: Honorary Degree Committee, c/o Provost's Office, UNCSA, 1533 S. Main St., Winston-Salem, NC 27127.
